

26. One component of internal control standards is the assignment of key steps in processing transactions to different individuals in an organization. Check YES if your organization has assigned each of the following tasks to separate personnel:
- a. Authorizing transactions;
 - b. Processing and recording transactions;
 - c. Reviewing transactions, and
 - d. Processing related assets, such as cash or equipment.